Creek & bathed and washed some clothes. Water very cold. I came up and hung them out to dry and then John and I, at my suggestion, took a ride around Elk Mountain. I thought that we would have a ^{serious} conversation during the ride but it did not come to pass. We had a non-conversation, although the ride was beautiful -- not a cloud in the sky, setting sun, beautiful light, leaves beautiful in the sunlight. We returned here and I checked to make sure the bouffe was OK & then I drove John into town again -- more non-conversation. at 46 Canaan I was invited in and John showed me the new revolver that he recently bought. Beautiful. It appears to be an old-fashioned gun even though it is a new one. he purchased it second-hand for $100 I believe he said. I sat at 46 Canaan for about 5 minutes and then returned to Elkhdale, where I supped on more turkey soup and more rice pudding (both are now gone & both were delicious). Jean telephoned & we chatted for about 40 minutes. She has arranged for Custy Molinaro & some city worker to pick up the watering trough / fountain from John Baumann ^(who gave it to the CHSD & M, Inc.) on Tuesday. Excellent. The fountain will be stored in the city garage until installation. Custy will also pick up the two 400-pound plus marble pedestals that Baumann also gave the Historical Society. When I left 46 Canaan ce soir, John and I shook hands warmly. Where do we stand? Je me demande. Where?

Hymn: "Reaching Out to Make a Difference"

(Hymn tune - "Trust and Obey")

Verse 1.

There's a whole world out there
For whom our Lord doth care;
And He tells us to reach out in love,
For He cleanses from sin
And renews from within
And points us to heaven above.

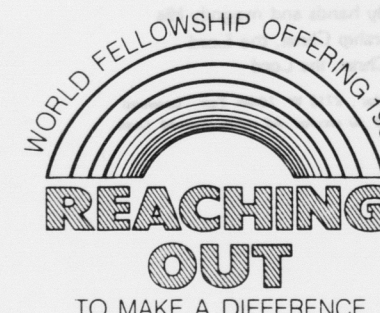

Chorus:

Reach out today
For there's no other way
To obey our dear Savior
Than to reach out today!

Verse 2.

We will reach out and give
so that others may live;
All we have, we now give to our Lord.
What a difference there is
In the life that's now His
In the person who follows His word!

Peggy Garcia
The Church clerk does not appear to understand the use of the apostrophe, hence, the three errors in this morning's bulletin. I have underlined them as follows (†):

Lords Prayer = Lord's Prayer
Lords Supper = Lord's Supper
Gods Servant = God's Servant

I circled the error and placed the program in the collection plate. I have done so before & yet Peggy Garcia continues to make the same mistakes. I slipped in & out of church comatose and spoke to no one except Ki Carey, who always shakes hands with me on the way out.
